

6TH COPENHAGEN TRAUMA SYMPOSIUM

My trauma treatment failed – why and what do I do?

Program

Friday 18 th May 2018
08.00 – 09.00	Registration and coffee/croissant
09.00 – 10.00	1 How often do our dental trauma treatments fail? Can they be predicted and avoided? Jens Ove Andreassen
10.00 – 10.45	2 Resin composites for restoration of fractured anterior teeth. Provisional or permanent restoration? Ulla Pallesen
10.45 – 11.15	Coffee break
11.15 – 12.15	3 My endodontic treatment failed? What are my treatment options? Asgeir Sigurdsson
12.15 – 13.15	4 Periodontal healing failed – what to do? Lars Andersson
13.15 – 14.00	Lunch
14.00 – 15.00	5 The lost permanent anterior tooth. Indications, contraindications and prognosis of tooth retained fixed dental prosthesis. Bjarni Elvar Pjetursson
15.00 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 16.30	6 The lost permanent anterior tooth. Indications, contraindications and prognosis of dental implants. Simon Storgård Jensen
19.00	Symposium dinner
Saturday 19 th May 2018
08.30 – 09.00	Coffee
09.00 – 10.30	7 Is pulp regeneration after trauma a reality or a fallacy? Monty Duggal
10.30 – 11.00	Coffee break
11.00 – 12.00	8 Damage to developing teeth after primary tooth injuries. Can these malformations be predicted and treated? Jens Ove Andreassen
12.00 – 13.00	Lunch
13.00 – 13.45	9 The lost alveolar process. Can it be predictably recreated? Thomas Kofod
13.45 – 14.30	10 Premolar transplants to treat anterior tooth replace loss. Is it a reliable treatment? Monty Duggal
14.30 – 15.00	Coffee break
15.00 – 16.00	Case presentations and panel discussion Moderators Jens Ove Andreassen & Eva Lauridsen