

Lecture overview

Tooth Agenesis webinar

Treatment planning for long-term success or a lifelong challenge?

Available for 3 weeks from October 12, 2021
Sven Kreiborg	Tooth agenesis: How frequent, where and how extensive?
Sven Kreiborg	Characteristics of syndromatic and non-syndromatic tooth agenesis
Hendrik Terheyden	Long-term prognosis of deciduous teeth without permanent successors
Stefan Axelsson	Psychologic challenges in agenesis patients
Shakeel Shahdad	Early inter-disciplinary treatment planning in agenesis patients
Morten G. Laursen	Orthodontic treatment to replace congenitally missing teeth or to prepare for prosthetic tooth replacement
Shakeel Shahdad	Removable dental prostheses as temporary or permanent tooth replacement in agenesis patients
Mathias Kern	Tooth-supported fixed dental prostheses in agenesis patients
Ewa Czychowska	Autotransplantation in agenesis patients – indications and timing
Thomas Kofod	Dental implant placement during childhood and adolescence – is it allowed?
Hendrik Terheyden	Dental implants in adult agenesis patients
Thomas Kofod	Treatment planning in complex cases with oligodontia
Hendrik Terheyden	Long-term prognosis and socio-economic aspects of tooth replacements in agenesis patients